EVENT SCHEDULE / RUN GROUPS: See official schedule for race grouping and session lengths. The event schedule or run groups may only be changed by the Chief Steward, with agreement of the Competition Committee Chairman, depending on pre-race entry counts or as needed to accommodate event circumstances. If changes are made prior to the start of the event, as much notice as possible will be given to all affected competitors. The schedule as published is for planning purposes only. Actual session start times may deviate from the published schedule based on event circumstances. Please listen to the PA system and pay attention to what is happening on track. Start times indicated in schedule are when cars are scheduled to be released from grid onto the track. The session time for qualifying begins when the signal is given to release the cars from the Grid. The time for the races begins at the completion of the first pace lap.

TIMING & SCORING: If the Chief Steward allows the substitution of a car or driver, per GCR 5.12.3.A.6, any qualifying times earned for the original car / driver up to that point will be removed.

Starting positions for the Sunday race will be determined by the fastest lap time recorded for each car during each of the preceding qualifying sessions and their fastest lap during the Saturday race. If qualifying is not run for a group for any reason, the Chief Steward shall determine the method of setting the grid for the race. The fastest qualifier in a race group who selects the "outside pole" (per GCR) must notify the Grid Marshal at the front of the field before the five minute warning is given for that race group. Cars arriving at the grid after their group has been dispatched on track may, at the discretion of the Operating Steward, be held at pit out and released at the end of the pack after the field has completed the pace lap.

RADIO FREQUENCIES: The radio frequencies below are reserved for race operations and may not be used by any competitors. Race Officials may designate other frequencies for race administration.

Please see Addendum A: Rules of Road America section 5.0 for when race engines may be run and quiet hours.

PACE/SAFETY CAR: In addition to GCR 6.6.2., the field shall follow the Pace/Safety car as long as its emergency lights are flashing, even if it varies from the normal race course. DISABLED CARS: Disabled or damaged cars may be removed from the course and delivered to a central location. If the car has sustained body/chassis damage, it will be released to the driver/crew after tech has made appropriate notations in the vehicle log book. Cars disabled due to a mechanical failure will be released to the driver/crew immediately. If the car requires wrecker support to return to its paddock location, there may be a delay depending upon the availability of wreckers or flat tows.

PADDOCK/PARKING: Parking regulations are incorporated in these regulations by reference. Failure to follow the direction of the paddock marshal or his designate regarding paddock parking or activities may result in expulsion from the facilities.

Paddock areas allowed for this event are Main Paddock (excluding paddock spot #1 across from the garage closest to the CTECH Scale House, spots #34 and #35 which are the two spots to the south of the garage spot down to the paddock lane), Upper Paddock, Competition Paddock, Lower West Paddock, and North Paddock (excluding Lester Car Port Paved Pad).

Paddock does not include pavement in the motor home parks, pavement by the Road America Center, paved areas in North Paddock/Lester Car Port, the Corporate Pad, pavement in front of scale building, pavement directly in front of overhead doors of the Hagerty (Paddock) Tech Center, any area that is designated as a fire lane, Paddock Shop patio, or Victory Lane area.

All competitors must maintain a slow, prudent speed on pit lane at all times. Use the transit lane until reaching and upon exiting your pit stall. Do not drive through other pit stalls. Tire scrubbing is permitted after the apex of corner one.

To facilitate timely movement of the next race group onto the track, cars entering the pits following the checkered flag may be stopped before center pit to allow the next group to exit the grid.

The Legend of the Cat

For years, the Milwaukee Region National Race at Road America was simply known as a Road America National. Many have asked how this race came to be known as the “Cat National”. It began at the parties on Saturday evenings when workers would raise a toast to Brian Redman’s Cat. At one of the Road America Nationals in the early 1980’s, the workers decided to travel out to raise a toast at the Cat’s “grave” (a pile of rocks at Corner 10) and the event has since been known as “The Cat”. At that time, a legend was born. Note: Due to the relocation/reconfiguration of cornerworker stations at Road America, the actual current location of the grave has moved and is on the right between stations 9 and 10.

The following is the Legend of Brian Redman’s Cat, in its entirety, as published in 1983. Please note that it reflects some of the traditions and customs of the time, i.e., seeming to encourage drinking, the references to the quality and type of lunches (things have improved dramatically in that respect), the location of Corner 10 has changed, and the fact that The Cat legend began with Cornerworkers and is now embraced by workers from all Specialties along with drivers and their crews.

The Legend

There are a lot of different versions about why people are drinking to Brian Redman’s Cat. Credit for the Cat has been claimed by various groups - drivers, crew members, every race worker specialty and even some of the more alcoholic spectator groups. Everyone wants to get into the act. Don’t believe any of them. Now is the time for the true facts. Ignore all rumors. Especially the one that says the Cat was invented by cornerworkers at an emergency drinking meeting of the “Road Racing Roundtable” in the parking lot of Schwartz’s in St. Anna, Wisconsin.

Cornerworkers are damned particular who they raise a glass to. Their toasts are a sign of respect bestowed only to the fastest – People like Fangio, Moss, Clark, Donohue, and Brian Redman. All properly conducted Saturday drinking contests follow a pattern. You take turns making a toast. You are expected to toast someone faster than the predecessor. Lately the toasting seems to always end with a final toast – “Here’s to Brian Redman’s Cat”. The Cat really isn’t quicker than Brian, but he is faster than most, especially in the rain (his claws are an advantage). Here now is the straight story:

“The Cat”, he didn’t have a name in those days (actually, he still doesn’t), was first noticed by cornerworkers at Road America. He lived his entire first life right there at the track. That first life was what started the Legend. We are certain that each of his remaining lives will contribute to their legend and he will take his rightful place in racing history.

When first spotted, he certainly didn’t look like legend material. He was apparently booted out of a car as a kitten and grew up wild at Road America, scrounging for his food and fighting for survival. He was a skinny pitiful site, obviously undernourished and very anti-social. The event was a cold May Drivers School and it was raining. That dumb Cat was standing there, soaked to his skin, watching the racecars, just like the cornerworkers. He was obviously impressed.

“The Cat” was having a really rough time when he discovered the generosity of cornerworkers. At lunch time, eating with them was better than scrounging for food. This was easy; he was well fed on every corner he visited. He never understood the fact that maybe the amount of food available for cats had something to do with the quality of the lunches. He really learned to love the vulcanized bratwurst with melted Hershey bar on top. He even learned to like the “mystery meat”. Eventually he became more tame and actually permitted a few cornerworkers to give him an occasional pat on the head. He seemed to enjoy them and their company.

Later he started drinking with the workers at the end of the day. He found that most cornerworkers had alcoholic beverages in their survival kits for after the last car. He got into the habit of making the rounds of the corners. He’d have a quick one with anybody that was willing to share.

When he wasn’t eating or drinking, he was watching the racecars. He couldn’t hide his admiration for the fastest drivers because he was pretty fast himself. Just like his friends – the workers – he became an ardent fan of Brian Redman. In fact, every time Brian Redman raced at Road America, you could find The Cat hanging around his pit. If you looked real careful, you could see his was listening to and watching Brian’s every move. As years went by, The Cat developed two burning ambitions. One was to drink with every cornerworker in the country and the other was to beat Brian Redman’s time at Road America. He used to work at it at night. If you were at the right place at the right time, you could see The Cat – who by then was known as “Brian Redman’s Cat” – doing hot laps. Gradually he worked his time down to where he was within a couple seconds of Brian Redman’s best time. He probably would have made it if it hadn’t been for a tragic unfortunate accident.

One particularly dark night he had a real fast lap going. He came into corner 10 right on the ragged edge. Unfortunately, a large deer was asleep in the apex and The Cat hit it at speed. There weren’t any cornerworkers there to help and he did not survive the crash.

The next morning when the cornerworkers came out to set up the station for the day, they found his remains. And out of respect for The Cat and Brian Redman, they buried The Cat with a good view of the turn.

Today at between Station 9 and 10 you’ll find a rather large mound of rocks with a crude cross on top of it. Directly in front of the mound is a granite headstone with the following inscription “Here Lies Brian Redman’s Cat, The Bloodshot Blur With Fur.” That is the final resting place of Brian Redman’s Cat. When someone visits, it is tradition to add one more rock to the pile.

That might have been the end of this legend except for a strange phenomenon that was noticed shortly after the crash. Whenever cornerworkers got together for serious partying, The Cat would usually show up after a sufficient number of toasts “To Brian Redman’s Cat”; that damned Cat would come back for one more drink with his friends, the cornerworkers. And so, if you are a good cornerworker and have faith, especially if you drink enough (this is very important) sooner or later you will see “Brian Redman’s Cat”.
